EVA GOOD

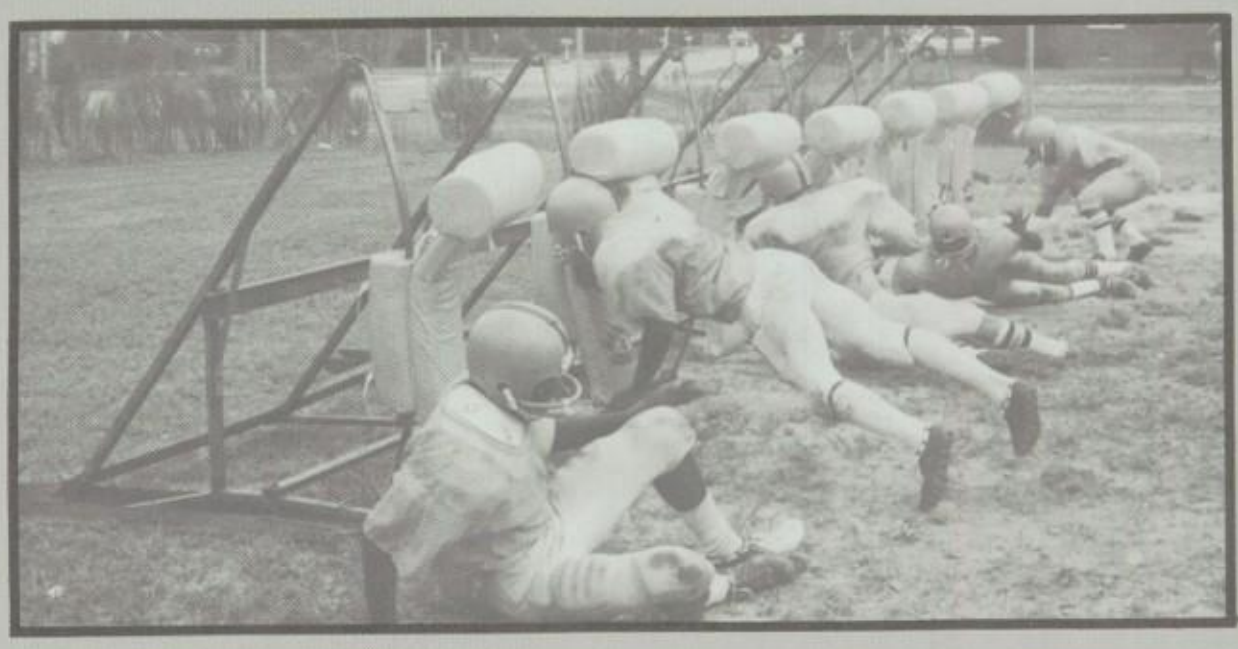
Oh crap there goes Coach Lewis blowing that darn whistle again. ... Well 6:00 and time to get up ... Yeah time to rise and shine ... Hope everyone is bright eyed and bushy tailed this morning.

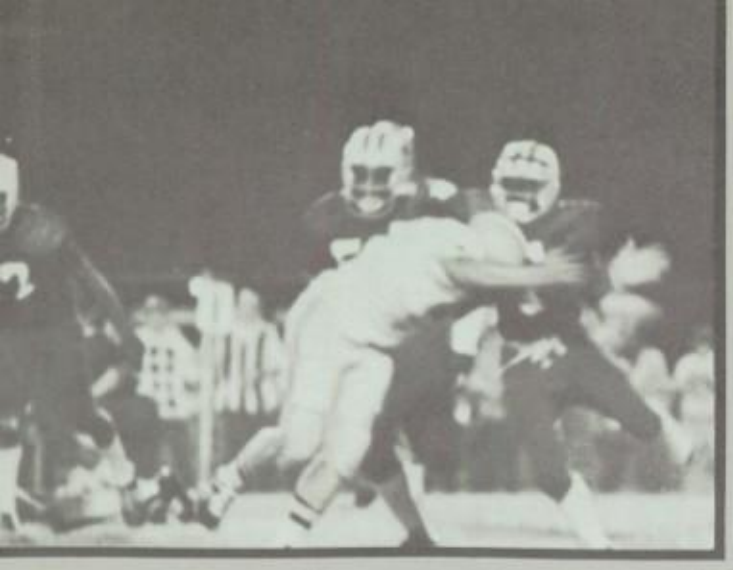
Man that grass is sure going to be cold when we do hurdlers stretch. ... It is so foggy out here that we could hide in it while everyone else practices ... Don't worry all we have to do is leap frog in and we will be finished with morning practice.

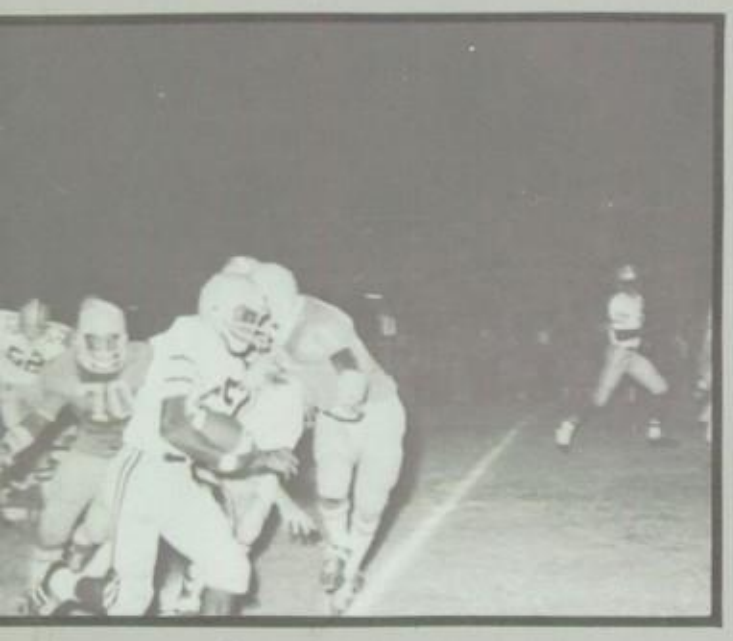
How are we going to initiate the rookies this year? ... I know, send 'em off the end of the pier and swat 'em on the rear end with the boat paddles. That sounds like a good idea to me. That sure was fun watching those rookies get their butts burned.

Afternoon practice was really hard. I thought it would never end. Do you all want to go skinny dipping down at the dam? Yeah, let's hurry. Gee Khuel, you, Ridgeway, and Borelli, sure looked funny streaking down to the water hole today ... I couldn't believe how cold that water was. It seemed like you even jumped in. Do you think Tuffy has opened his daily bag of candy today? Hope not because I want some ... We sure found a neat place to go swimming. About half a mile down the path there is a clearing where the water gets deeper and there is a tree with a rope to swing from ...

I don't know about you all but I am hitting the sack early tonight ... Hall, Bigfoot isn't coming tonight. I wish you would quit worrying and go to sleep. Night Elton ... Night Don ... Night Danny ... Night Country Kim ... GOOD NIGHT ...







Goose Creek 22-0

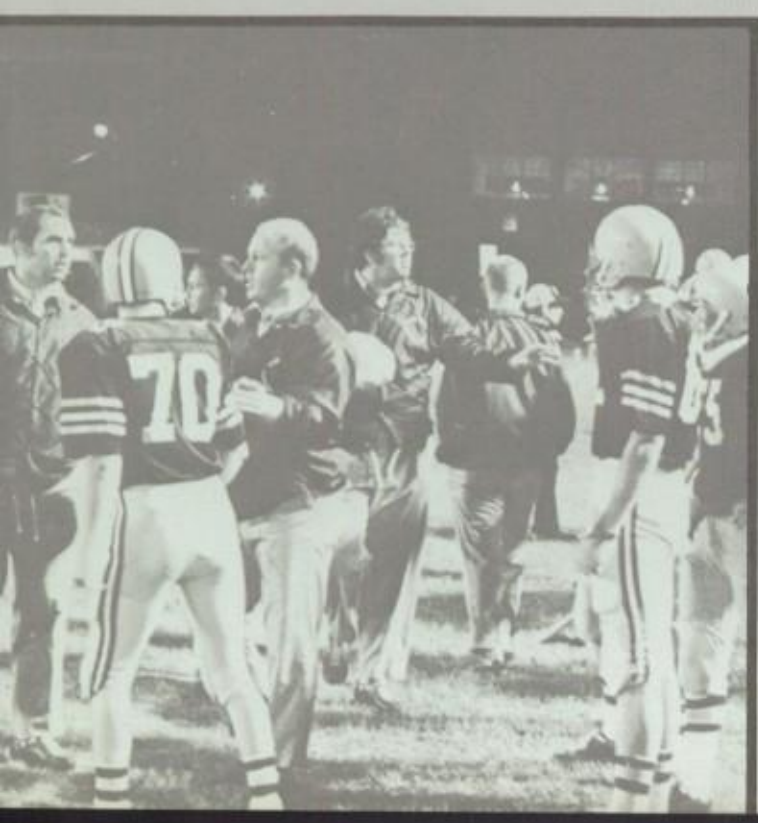
Goose Creek jumped out to a 22-0 lead in the first half and then survived six second half fumbles to whip Berkeley 22-0 on Friday night. It was Goose Creek's first victory ever over the Stags at Moncks Corner.

Sophomore quarterback Bill Duke engineered the Gators' offense in the first half. Duke, running the option to perfection, scored twice on six and 12-yard runs. Bernard Keyes scored the other TD for Goose Creek on a three-yard plunge. Chris Fesler kicked a pair of PATs and Johnny Hunt pulled in a two-point conversion pass from second team quarterback Greg Batts, the holder on the placements.

The Gators took the opening kickoff and drove 40 yards with Duke scoring from six yards out and Goose Creek led 8-0 at the end of the first quarter after Hunt's two-pointer.

In the second quarter coach Simon Lewis' club put the game away with two touchdowns. Halfback Peter Hargrove had a good night for the winners, rushing for over 100 yards.

Defensive ends Scott Ridgeway and Lloyd Gibson along with guard James Holliday keyed the Gators' defense, which shut off off Berkeley's offense, especially in the second half when the Gators were guilty of four fumbles.



Warriors Tie Gators With Late Score

By DARRELL LAURANT
Sports Staff Writer

Wando may have had its problems offensively against Goose Creek Friday night, but at least you couldn't accuse Gerald Moody's Warriors of blowing scoring opportunities. They had only one—and they converted it into six points.

Jerald Fordham hammered over from the four yard line with 3:36 remaining at Jasper Green, giving the Warriors a 6-6 tie with the visiting Gators, and only a rather glaring gap in the Wando offense—no placekicker—kept the home team from pulling out a victory.

"Some years we have several kickers," said Moody afterwards. "This just happens to be a year when we don't have any."

Instead of what might have been the winning placement, Wando sent Fordham off tackle with the Warriors' undefeated season cradled in his arms. Goose Creek's Ken Kauhl and Johnny Hunt pushed him back, and the argument as to which AAAA conference leader plays better football is still up in the air. The game ended 6-6.

A few minutes before Wando got caught without a kicker, however, Goose Creek got caught clipping. The two events are probably of equal significance.

Slippery Gator tailback Peter Hargrove had just wriggled his way 28 yards to the Wando 20 when the flag was thrown, and Goose Creek had to kick the ball away. The Warriors took possession on their own 21, and pushed into the end zone 15 plays later.

Senior quarterback Craig Mitchum was the man who keyed that final Wando drive. He hit Joey Ferguson with a clutch third down pass which placed the ball on the Goose Creek 16, then ducked between two big Gator tackles on a keeper to the 10. The penalty-plagued visitors were detected piling on, moving Wando to the four and setting up Fordham's touchdown run.

Before that, Goose Creek had maintained a slight edge. Hargrove's short burst at 2:17 of the first period made the score 6-0, and Simon Lewis' Conference 8-AAAA leaders (also 2-0 entering the game) were in high gear at one point in the third period when a fumble stopped them inside the enemy 10.

Both teams threw up rugged defensive barriers. Fordham piled up over 200 yards in each of his previous ballgames, but he had to fight for his life to gouge out 77 against the likes of James Holliday (6-3, 210), Hunt (6-0, 185), Scott Ridgeway (5-11, 185), Lloyd Gibson (6-2,200) and Chris Fesler (6-1, 190). And Donald Gentry, Keith Hall and Jeff Williams shut off Wando's passing game almost completely.

The Warrior defense (described by Moody as "a bunch of little guys butting heads with those big fellows all night") was led by middle guard Theodore Green, Ray Robinson and David Bannister. Another Wando hero was Ferguson, who averaged over 40 yards with long, spiralling punts. Late in the game, he sailed one 61 yards.

The game started off ominously for the home team, as Goose Creek's opening kickoff bounced crazily off a Wando kick returner and was downed on the one. The Warriors spent most of the first quarter fighting poor field position, until Goose Creek rammed the ball 44 yards in 10 plays to go ahead. The kick failed.

Gators' Second Half Comeback Sinks Burke

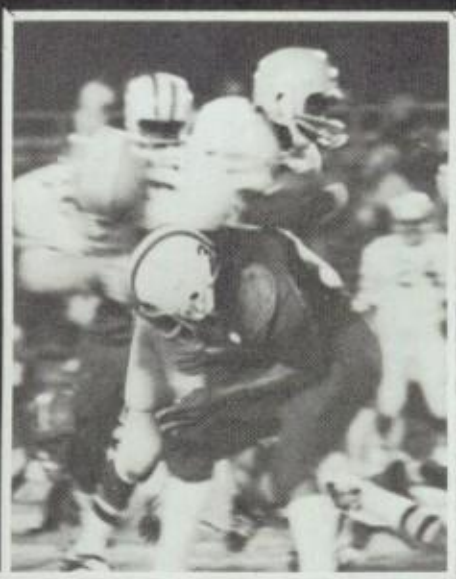
Highly-touted Goose Creek had to put on second half comeback to derail a surprisingly tough Burke team 14-6 Friday night in a Region 8-AAAA contest.

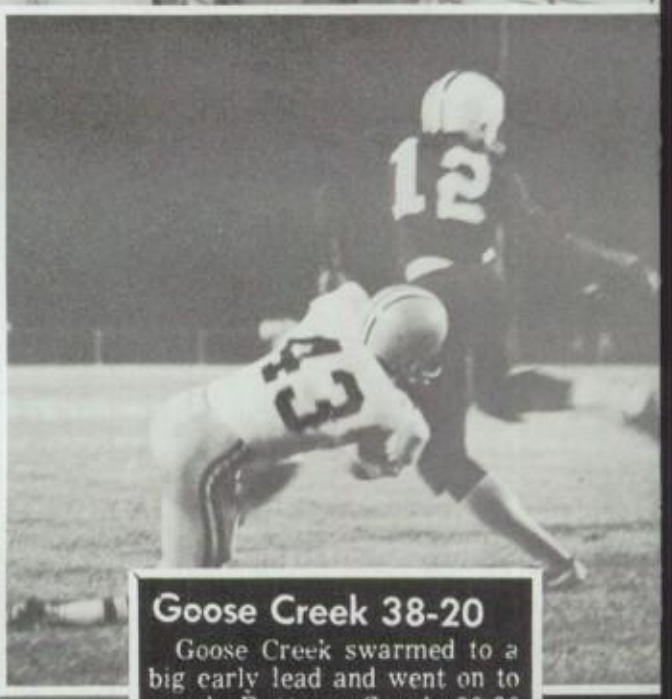
Burke's Bullodgs held a 6-0 lead at the half the result of a nifty 35-yard run with a screen pass by 5-6 speedster Ricky Haynes. Haynes took a pass from quarterback Malcolm Barnwell behind the line of scrimmage and threaded his way through the Gators defense for the score.

The Gators fumbled away two excellent scoring chances in the early minutes of the third quarter before finally getting on the scoreboard on an eight-yard burst by sophomore Donnie Finley. The score remained 6-6 when the snap for the extra point kick by Chris Fesler was bobbled.

Scott Ridgeway, the Gators All-Region defensive end, gave his team a 8-6 lead in the fourth quarter when he blocked a Burke punt out of the end zone. Bernard Keyes closed out the scoring for Goose Creek with a late 10-yard run.

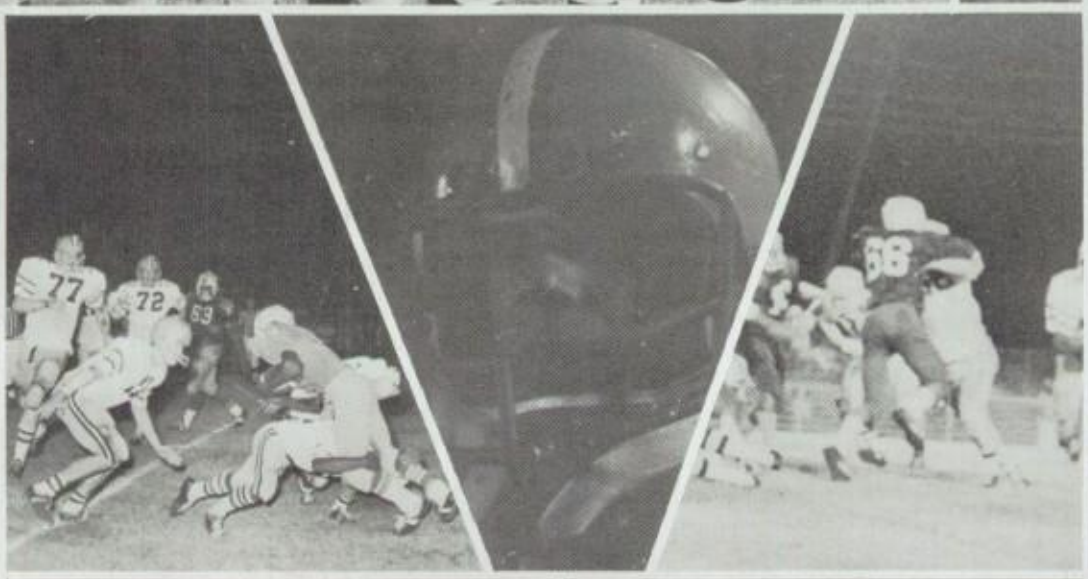
Peter Hargrove led the Gators relentless ground attack with150 yards on the ground. Goose Creek is now 2-0 on the season, while Burke has lost its only two outings.

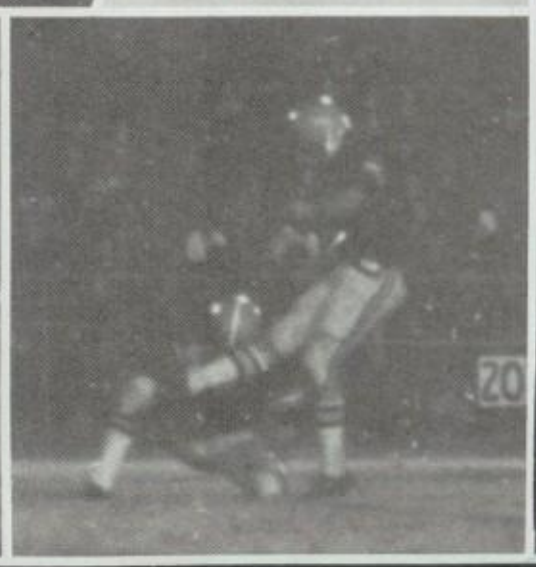




Goose Creek 35-6

Goose Creek battered Roberts last night with the running of backs Peter Hargrove and Tuffy Finley while the defensive unit successfully shut off the Tigers' attack in a 35-6 Gator victory.





Goose Creek 38-20

Goose Creek swarmed to a big early lead and went on to crush Battery Creek 38-20 Friday night at Goose Creek.

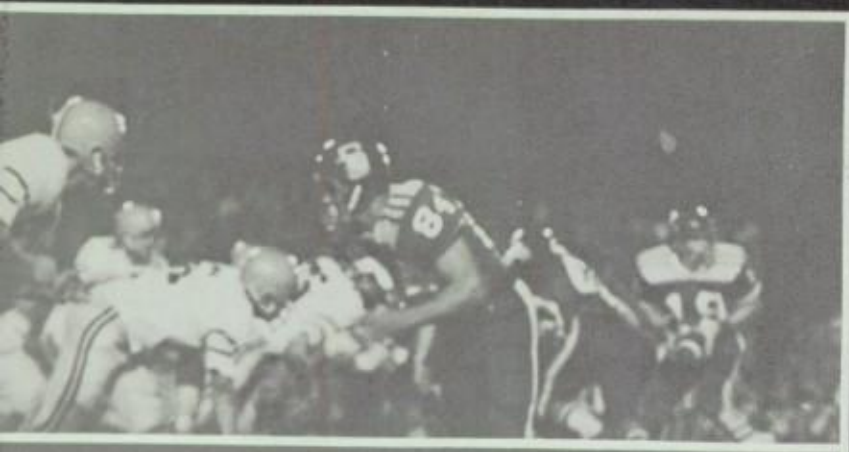
The Gators gave up an early touchdown to the visiting Dolphins, but came back to rally to a 24-6 halthalftime lead. They upped it to 31-6 in the third period, before Battery Creek quarterback Jim Cowley threw two touchdown passes to narrow the score.

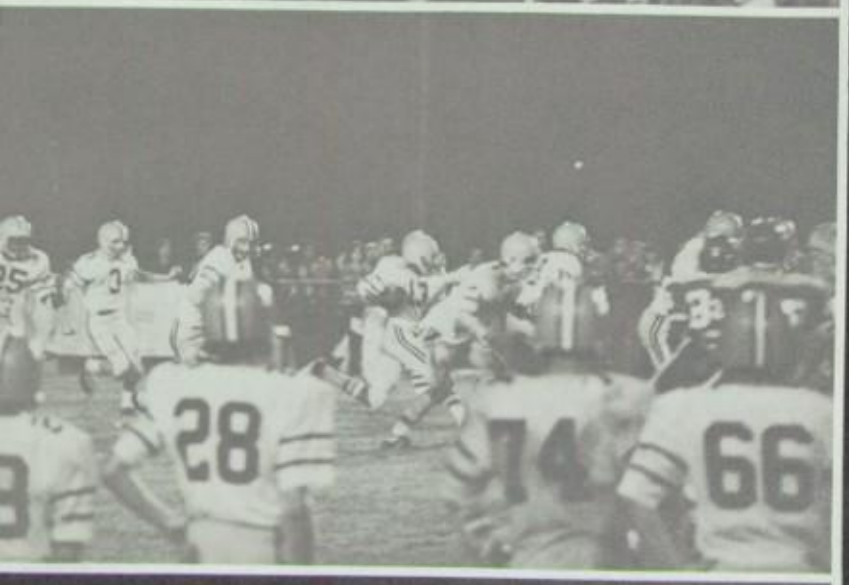
Cowley's passes set up the Dolphins' first quarter score, which came on a 15-yard burst by Randolph Smith.

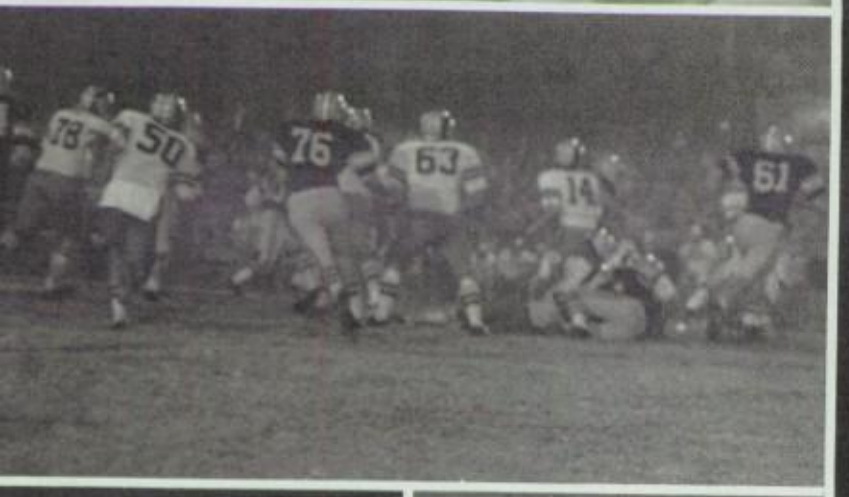
Goose Creek stormed back, tying the score on tailback Peter Hargrove's 16-yard run. Chris Felser's extra point, his first of five, made it 7-6 Goose Creek.

The Gators scored again later in the first period on a 16-yard pass from Bill Dukes to tight end Bill Wright, and Dukes hit tiny split end Tommy Borrelli on a 40-yard pass early in the second period. Fesler added a 23-yard field goal late in the half.

Hargrove tallied for the second time in the third period, and Tuffy Finlay's two-yard plunge in the fourth period closed out







'Best' Gator Team Readies For Wave

By DARRELL LAURANT
Sports Staff Writer

Goose Creek's football team has a score to settle with conference rival Summerville—41-0, to be exact.

That was the margin of victory last season, when John McKissick's Green Wave bludgeoned Goose Creek out of contention for what was then the Conference 7-AAAA title. Led by Craig English and brothers Stan and Steve Yarborough, Summerville went on to the Lower State finals.

Goose Creek and Summerville will be meeting again Friday night—this time with the 8-AAAA lead at stake—but a lot has changed in a year.

English and the Yarboroughs are still in the Charleston area, but playing for The Citadel. And Simon Lewis' Gators have a 4-0-1 record (versus Summerville's 3-1-1), one of the top defenses in the area, and 14 starting seniors with long memories.

"The players remember last year's game with Summerville," says Lewis, "and the coaches remember it, too. We expect Summerville to give us a fine game, but this might be the best team we've ever had at Goose Creek."

The implication is clear—Goose Creek doesn't intend to be a runnerup again.

At the heart of the Gators' success is what Lewis calls his "old fashioned" defense—a 6-2-3 with plenty of big people to man it.

"I think our defense confuses a lot of teams," speculates Lewis, "because hardly anybody uses it anymore. It's a hard thing to run against, but I've been very pleased with the way our pass defense has been coming around, also."

Keying the 6-2-3 are defensive ends Scott Ridgeway and Lloyd Gibson. Besides chasing down opposing quarterbacks as part of Goose Creek's persistent pass rush, these two husky seniors have the speed to turn running plays inside. There, unlucky opponents can be gobbled by the likes of Johnny Hunt(6-0, 185), Chris Fesler (6-1, 190). Ken Kuahl (6-1, 190), and James Holliday (6-3, 210).

Ironically, Goose Creek's best defensive game may have been the one the Gators didn't win—a 6-6 tie with Wando two weeks ago. Warrior quarterback Craig Mitchum was only four of 12 against the Gator secondary, and Wando running threats Jerald Fordham and Joey Ferguson never really got untracked. Wando did manage a touchdown late in the contest to tie, but Kuahl and Hunt stopped Fordham on a crucial two point conversion run.

Offensively, Lewis' team has had its problems. But a 38-20 victory over Battery Creek last Friday gave evidence that a questionable offensive line was coming around. Given time to throw, Goose Creek's Bill Duke riddled the Battery Creek secondary for 280 yards, and tailback Peter Hargrove chalked up over 100 overland yards for the fourth straight contest.

"We lost five people off the offensive line last year," says Lewis, "and had to fill the gaps with some younger players. I think they're going to be alright, though—our blocking assignments are being handled better every game."

The Gators have one of the better backfields in the Lowcountry. Duke, only a sophomore, can run or throw. Hargrove, a skittery 170-pounder, has already amassed over 700 yards rushing, and fullback Donnie (Tuffy) Finley compliments him well. When wingback Bernard Keyes is healthy (a badly dislocated finger hampered him the past three weeks), the Gators can put points on the board with anybody.

"If Summerville wins this week," says Lewis, "they probably will have clinched the conference title again. I don't think Burke and Beaufort will be able to stop them, and Middleton is certainly capable of stopping us."

Ridgeway, Gibson, Hargrove and the other Goose Creek seniors don't want that to happen. They'd like to give Summerville something to remember for next year.

Summerville Bombs Gators 26-6

Goose Creek Skins Razorbacks 21-6

By MIKE TROUCHE
Sports Staff Writer

Simon Lewis pulled his Halloween tricks a day late last night, but his Goose Creek team still managed to spook Middleton into committing enough costly turnovers to give the Gators a 21-6 victory and a spot in the 8-AAAA playoffs.

A blocked punt and a fumble recovery set up two of the Gator touchdowns , and defensive end Lloyd Gibson scored the other on a 62-yard dash after scooping up a fumble in the Razorback backfield.

The first surprise up Lewis' sleeve was to come out in a wishbone formation on offense. The Gators had been running from a power-I until this point, when Lewis made the surprise change.

"We have been practicing this for two weeks now, just for this game," Lewis said after the game. "We figured it was the only way we could run against them." The strategy worked fairly well, as the Gators racked up nearly 250 yards on the running of Peter Hargrove, Tuffy Finlay and Bernard Keyes. But the Gators' best punch came from their defensive unit, which kayoed Middleton's offense and enabled Lewis to pull his next surprise.

This one did not come from his sleeve, but from underneath the Gators' jerseys. Immediately following the game, the entire Goose Creek squad pulled off their jerseys, revealing T-shirts which read: The Gators are in the playoffs.

"The players didn't know about it until just before the game," Lewis explained. "After the pre-game warmups, we called the boys over to the sidelines and handed out the jersys, telling them not to show them until after the game was over.

"Their eyes got about this big around," Lewis added, making circles with his hands the size of oranges. "I think the jerseys inspired them into playing so well tonight."

Two of the most inspired were defensive ends Gibson and Scott Ridgeway. With 7:12 left in the second quarter and the score standing at 0-0, the two converged on Razorback quarterback Randolph Johnson, who was attempting to pass from the Gator 30. Ridgeway hit Johnson at the 35, jarring the ball loose. Gibson picked the spiroid up in stride and ran untouched for six.

The Gator defenders turned the ball over again almost immediately after the kickoff, when Willie Bradley pounced on a Kevin White bobble at the Razorback 40.

It took Lewis' surprise offense ten plays to score; Tuffy Finlay finding paydirt from one yard out with 1:32 left in the first half. Chris Fesler hit his second extra point attempt, and the Gators took a 14-0 lead into the dressing room.

The score stayed that way until the 3:26 mark in the third quarter, when Ridgeway broke through to block Billy Denson's punt at the Middleton 14. Keyes tallied from one yard three plays later; Fesler's point after giving the Gators an insurmountable 21-0 advantage.

The Razorbacks managed a touchdown with less than two minutes to play in the game on a 14-yard JOhnson-to-Mark Henrikson pass, but it was too late to spur a Middleton comeback.

Lewis gave credit to his defensive unit particualrly his ends Ridgeway and Gibson for providing the Gators with the all-important win

Second Half Push Propels Rams 33-7

By MIKE TROUCHE
Sports Staff Writer

James Island put on an awesome display of power and explosiveness in their 33-7 win over Goose Creek last night at Ram Field. But it was only a determined effort by the Rams to widen the point spread in the dying moments that made the margin of victory look so impressive.

The Gators were trailing only 15-7 with 2 play in the game when the roof fell in. At that point, Ram defensive end Chris tackled Gator quarterback Bill Duke in his own end zone fo making the count 17-7. The Rams were not s that margin, however, scoring twice inside the f minutes on long passes and making a pair o conversions.

Ram quarterback Jimmy Smith connected with Jerome Wi a 47-yarder on the first play after the Gators and Smith again teamed up for a score on a 35-ya pass to Anthony Mack with only 35 seconds remain followed both touchdowns with short tosse extra two points. Ram coach Reed Charpia denied that the late scores were any attempt to run up the score. He maintained that the Rams kept up their relentless quest for points in order that they would remain consistent and confident going into the lower state playoffs next week. In the first half, the Rams appeared to be looking ahead to the playoffs, making mistakes and muffing scoring opportunities as they fell behind 7-6 at intermission. After a scoreless first quarter, the Rams began a drive from their own 40 that carried them to the Gator 27 where Smith tried to hit Jerome Williams on a short screen pass. Lloyd Gibson intercepted for the Gators, lumbering 45 yards with the steal before Smith flagged him down. Peter Hargrove converted the turnover into six points for Goose Creek on an eight-yard run, and Chris Fesler's PAT made the score 7-6 Gators with 8:09 left in the half. The Rams overcame some hampering mistakes-including a clip that nullified a 40-yard punt return by Williams-to get on the scoreboard with 1:25 left, on a 2-yard plunge by Williams. The extra point attempt was blocked, and the the half ended at 7-6. James Island came out a little more determined in the second half, taking the opening kickoff and marching to the Gator 18. A dropped pass on third down stopped the Ram push, but John Jackson's 28-yard field goal put the Rams ahead to stay with 6:47 left in the period. The Gator offense could go nowhere against the likes of Crosby and Bernard McDaniels, and four plays later, the Rams were on the move again from their 48.following The fact that Gator defensive starters Craig Taylor and Gibson were put out of action with back injuries made the Ram task easier, and in 11 plays Williams scored again from a yard out to make the score 15-7.

Goose Creek's defensive unit wearied noticeably in the fourth quarter, giving up sizeable chunks of yardage on power sweeps by Williams and Sam Latto, while Smith picked up good yardage on occassional short passes.

The Goose Creek High School Junior Varsity Football team compiled a 7-3 record and captured a share of the J.V. Conference Championship for the fourth straight year. Because 13 sophomores who were eligible to J.V. ball this year made the varsity squad, the J.V. Gators were not blessed with the size and talent of past years. What they were blessed with was a generous supply of dedication, hard work, desire, and just plain guts. They were the only J.V. team in the Charleston area to hold two-a-day workouts.

Offensive standouts in the backfield were Robbie Denson at quarterback, Tim Feagin, Ted Bennett and Mike Burns at tailback, Vincent Greene at fullback. Offensive line standouts were Johnny Wood, Mike Condron and Mark Cooper. Defensive standouts were Ken Webber and Ricky Scott at linebacker, Boyd Gibson at end, Johnny Wood and Mike Condron in the line, and Larry Barnwell and Mike Waddell in the secondary.

Goose Creek Dominates 8-AAAA

REGION

Goose Creek might not be the 8-AAAA high school football champions, but the Gators dominated the All-Conference team released recently.

Goose Creek's quarterback Bill Duke was selected to pilot the 8-AAAA offense which includes teammates Peter Hargrove at halfback and Kem Lewis at tackle. On defense, the Gators placed end Scott Ridgeway, linebacker Keith Hall, defensive back Jeff Williams and nose guard James Holliday, who tied with Beaufort's Harold Rivers for the position honor, on the All-Conference team.

Conference champion Summerville placed five ot its football members on the team. The Greenwave's Tony Turkett was selected the 8-AAAA center, Freddie Hutchinson a halfback, Joel Gehlkin defensive tackle, and David Howard a linebacker.

The All-Conference Team:

Offense: Tight end Mark Henrikson, Middleton; split end Bubba Frost, Burke; tackle Doug Wilson, Middleton; Lewis, guard Steve Howe, Beaufort; Walter Hampton, Burke; center Turkett, quarterback Duke, fullback Allan Horn, Middleton; halfbacks Hutchinson and Hargrove.

Defense: Ends Almers and Ridgeway, tackles Gehlkin, David Nates, Middleton; nose guard Holliday and Rivers, linebackers Howard and Hall, defensive backs Thomas Sterling, Beaufort; Steve Connor, Middleton; Randy Moore, Burke; and Williams.

Summerville's Bo Blanton and Burke's Gerald Grant tied in the balloting for the most valuable utility man of the year.

Coach of the year has not been voted on as yet.

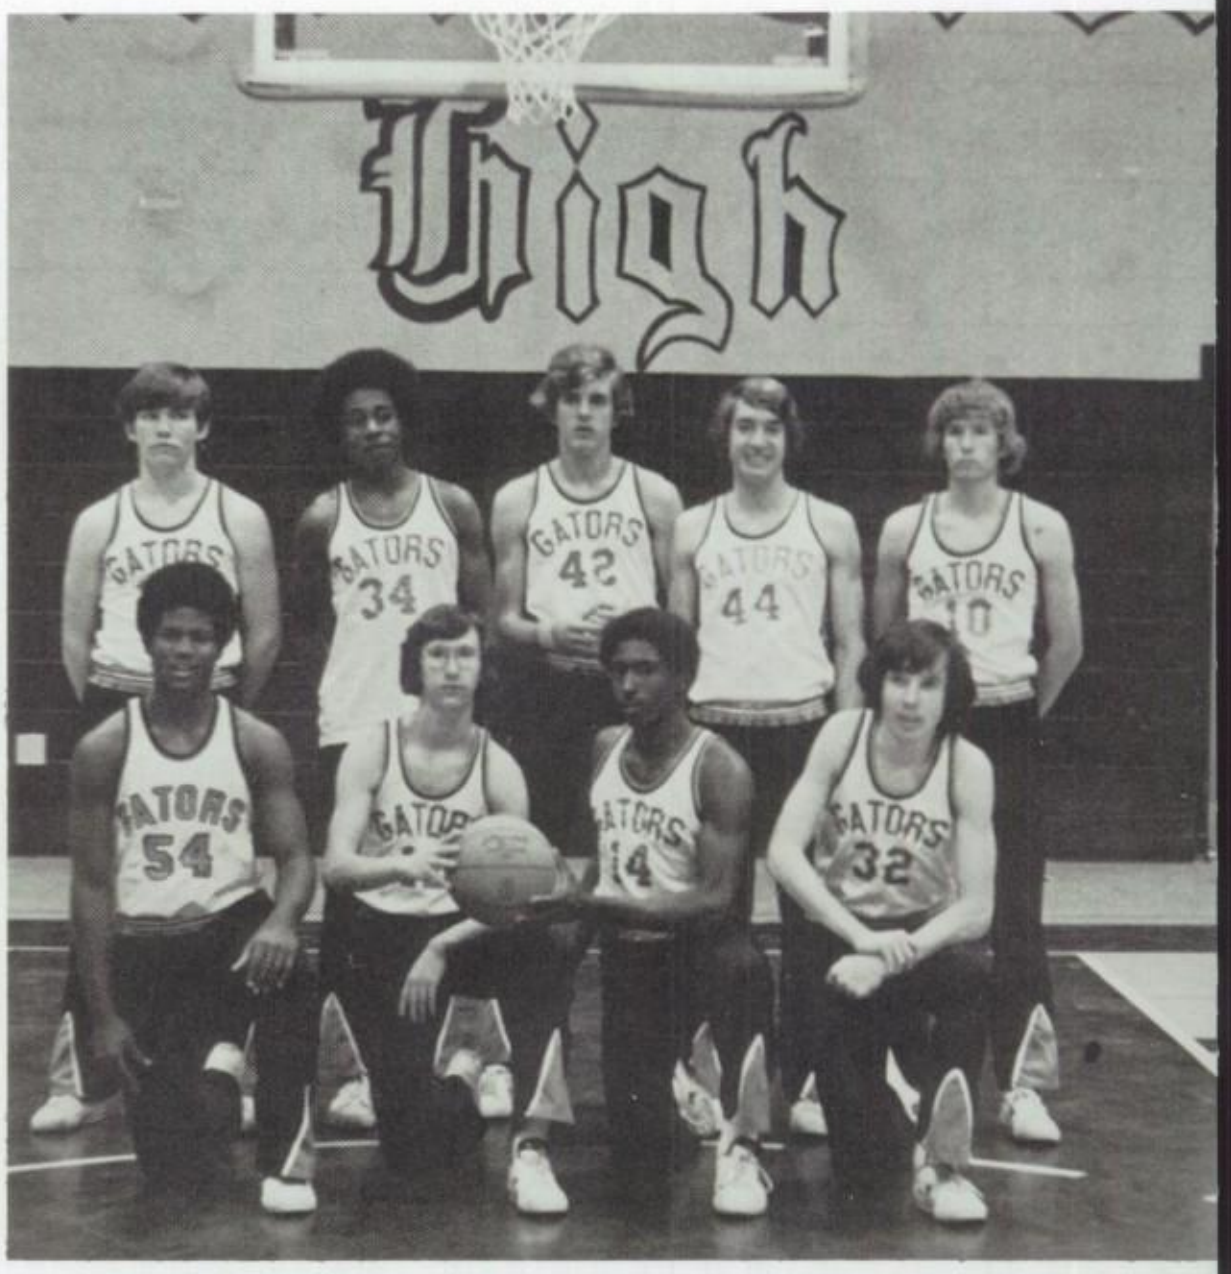
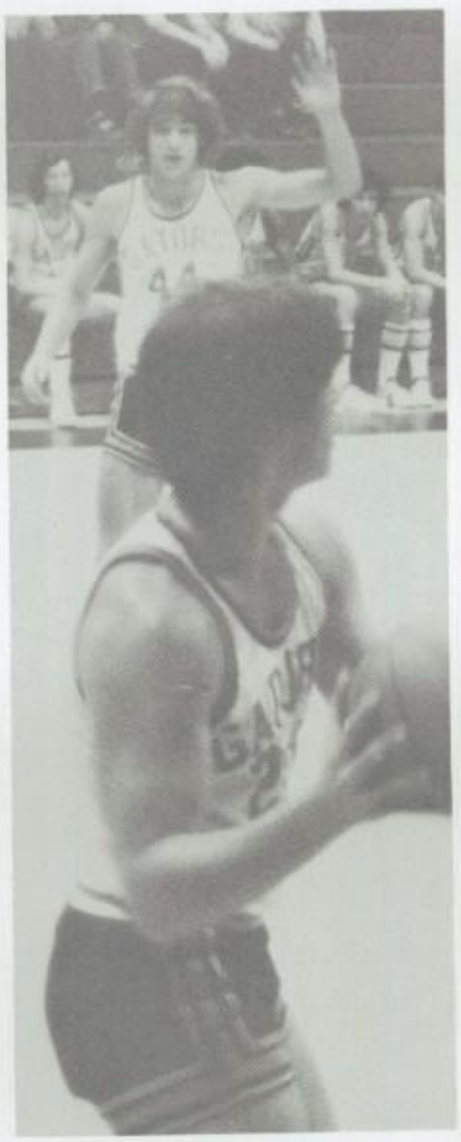
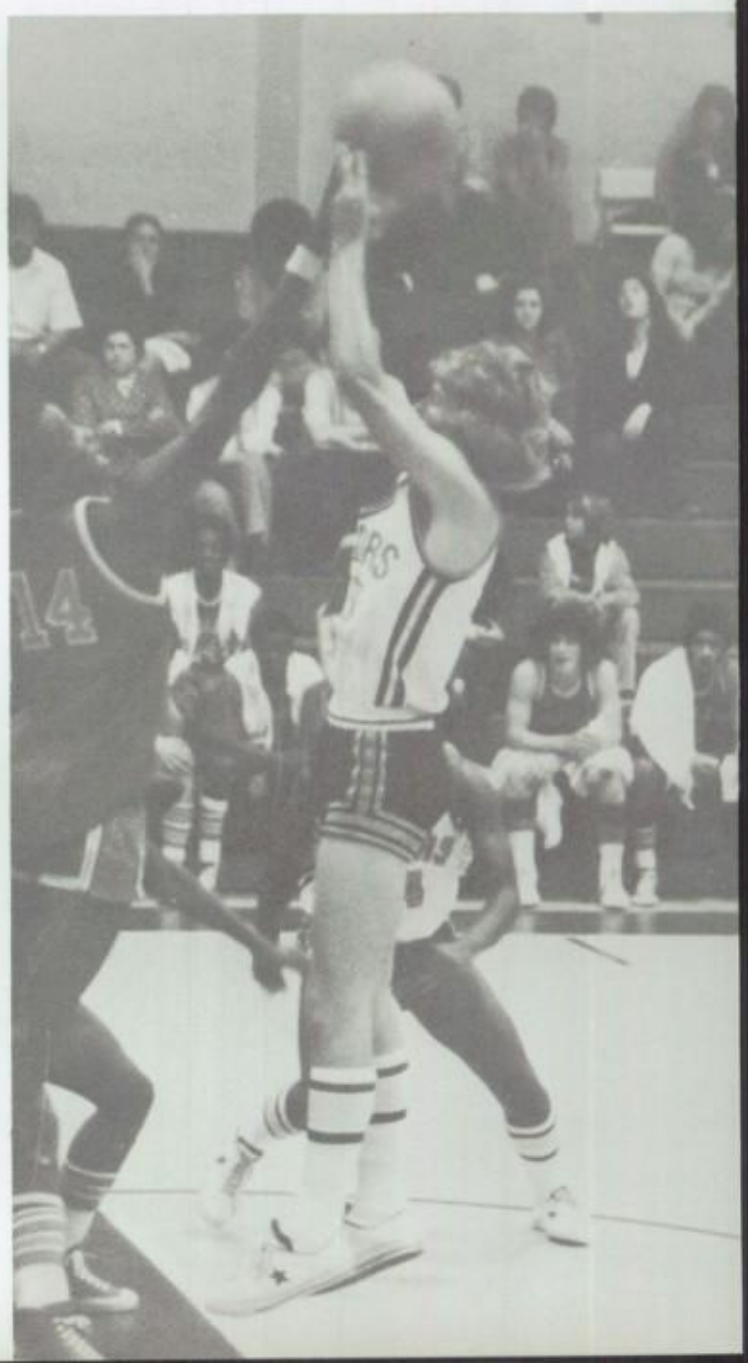
The shooting and floor leadership of Stan Fisher, and the rebounding of Ken Johnson were the nucleus of this year's Gator Basketball team, which struggled through a dismal season. Not the least of reasons for this was the fact that this year's Gators were runts, midgets in the midst of giants. Hustle and sound fundamental basketball, most of the time, equalized the size disadvantage. The record does not tell the entire story. The Gators played well, well enough to win several ballgames as the close scores indicate. However, lack of experience led to lapses in ball handling, defense and poise which caused many defeats. The Gators had Middleton on the ropes for about three quarters, then suddenly everything fell apart. This was characteristic. Play well enough to win, in fact be winning for three quarters, then complete foul-up. If it wasn't a disasterous first quarter, it was falling apart in the middle of a close game, or blowing a lead in the third or fourth quarter. Fisher and Johnson will be lost to next year's squad, but a year's experience should help in improving the Gator's record.



D. Houston, M. Knight, T. Hamilton, M. Perkins, K. Johnson, B. Fripp, J. Androff, A. Pohl, S. Fisher, Coach Barrow not pictured.





The Gatorettes Basketball team had a successful season, playing .500 ball with a 10-10 record. This was the first non-losing season for the Gatorettes.

However, the season was also a disappointment. Before the year began, expectations were high. A conference title and the state playoffs seemed within easy reach. Next to this, a third place conference finish, though good, just was not satisfactory. Although the mainstay of this year's team, Cindy Veazey, will be lost through graduation, next year's team returns three starters and almost all reserves. Maybe next year that title will be more than a dream.

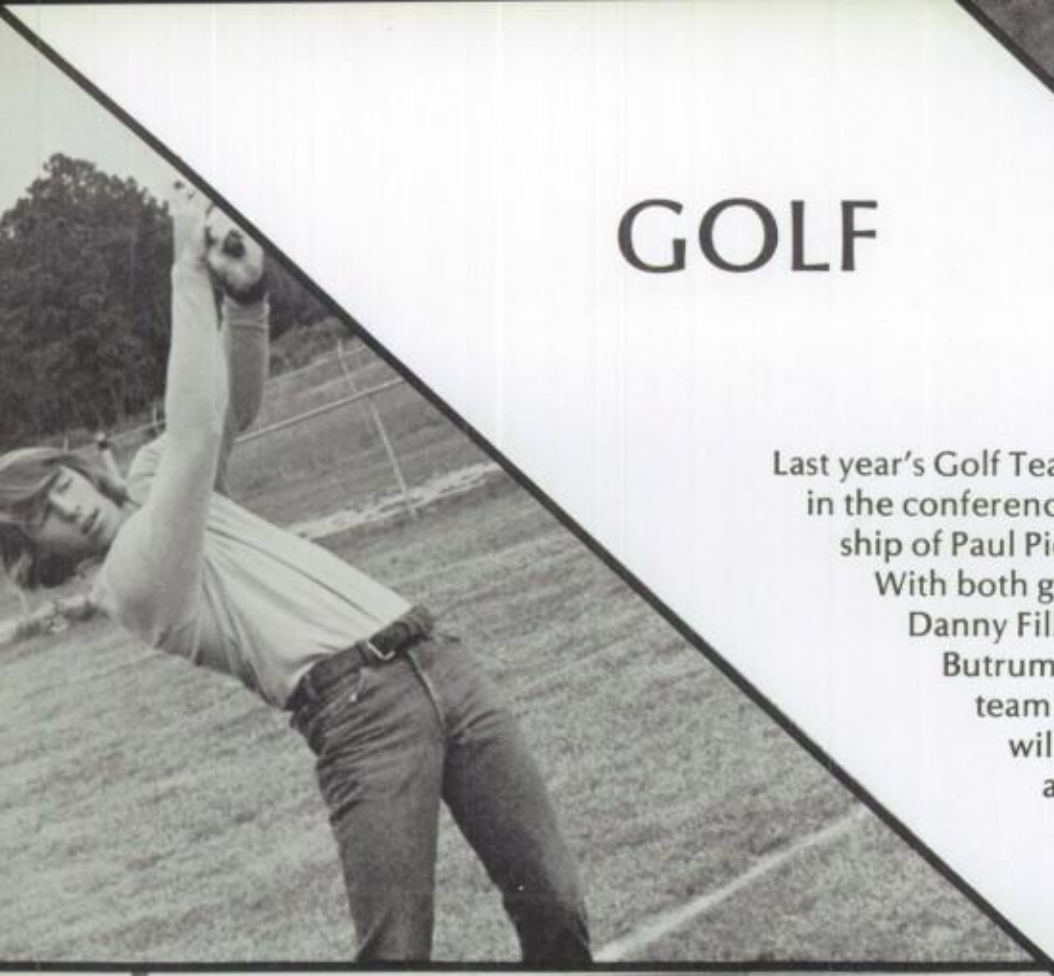
19 GCHS 75

The '74 Baseball Gators can be best characterized as a team that played well in streaks. After winning 5 of their first 6, the Gators dropped two close decisions to Walterboro and Middleton. Again, after winning 5 of their next 6, an exciting 1-0 victory over Middleton gave them sole possession of first place in the conference. However, during Easter, baseball fell on hard times. A key conference game with Beaufort was lost 2-0. A 1-0 squeaker and an eighth inning homor by Garrett cost the Gators two games. The Gators won 4 of the last 5, but a crucial loss to Summerville also cost the conference title.

BASE-

In retrospect, the Gators won 4 games, which some teams don't win in two or three years. There were some outstanding individual efforts. Jeff Wilson, Rick Knight, and Bill Duke turned in several excellent pitching efforts. Mike Fisher was a key relief man. Carl Rice, Peter Hargrove, and Don Gentry were consistent hitters, Rice, Wilson, John Hunt, and Harold Caraviello all stroked homeruns. Hunt smashed the first homerun in the history of GCHS, one of the largest fields in the area. The future looks bright for the Gators in '75, who return with a good, knowledgeable coach, several starters, power and 3 of 4 regular pitchers.



GOLF

Last year's Golf Team finished third in the conference under the leadership of Paul Pietch and Bob Dow. With both gone it will be up to Danny Fillion, Steve Gau, and Ken Butrum to take their place and be team leaders this year. The team will be coached by Jim Bonneville and are looking forward to a good season.

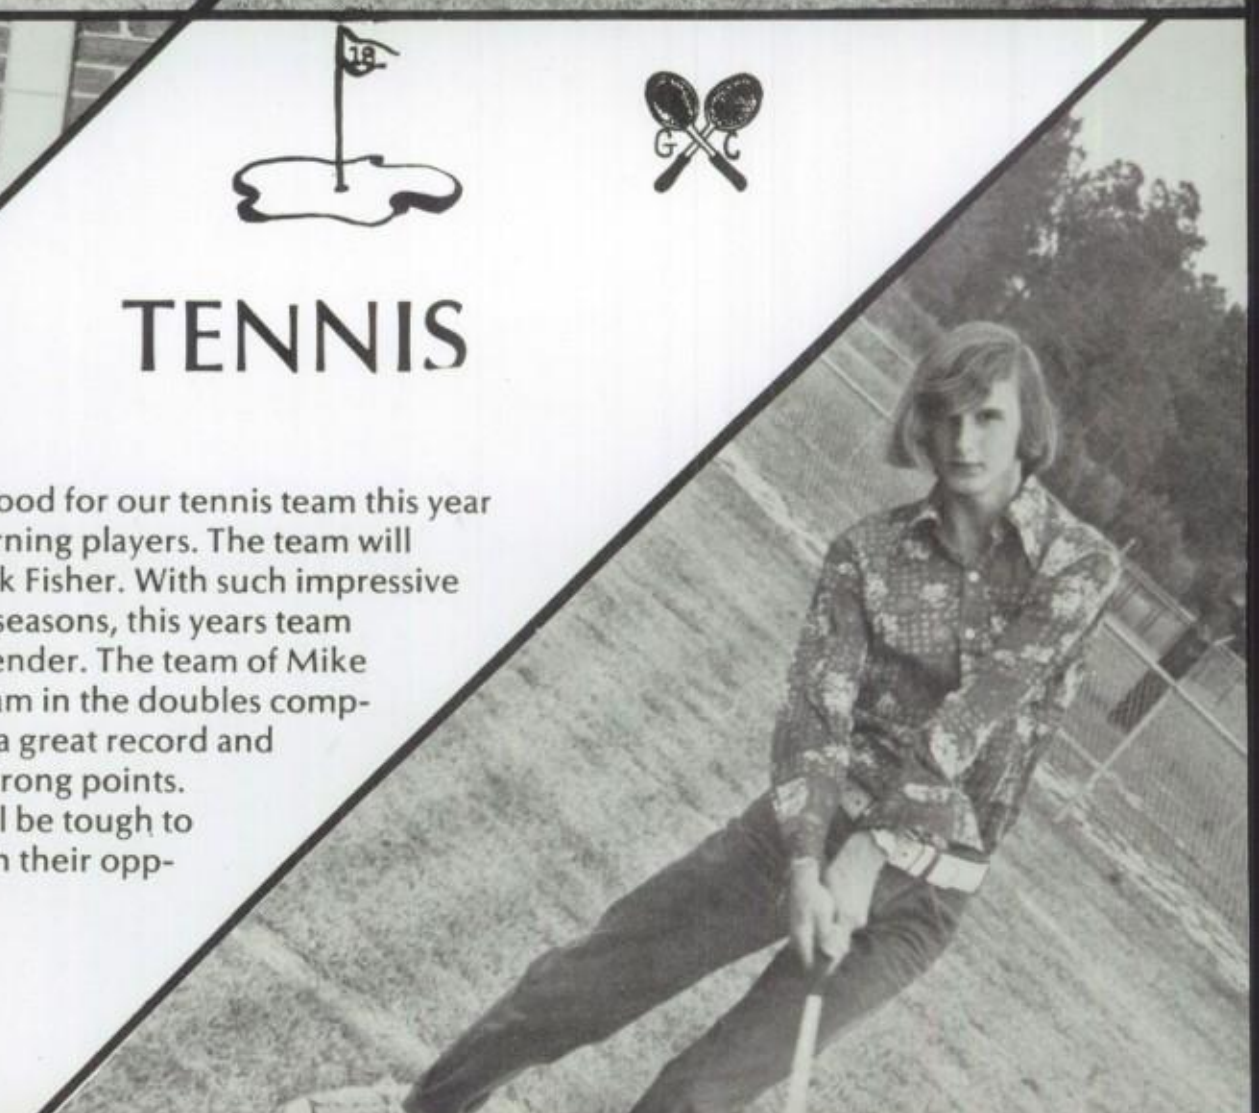
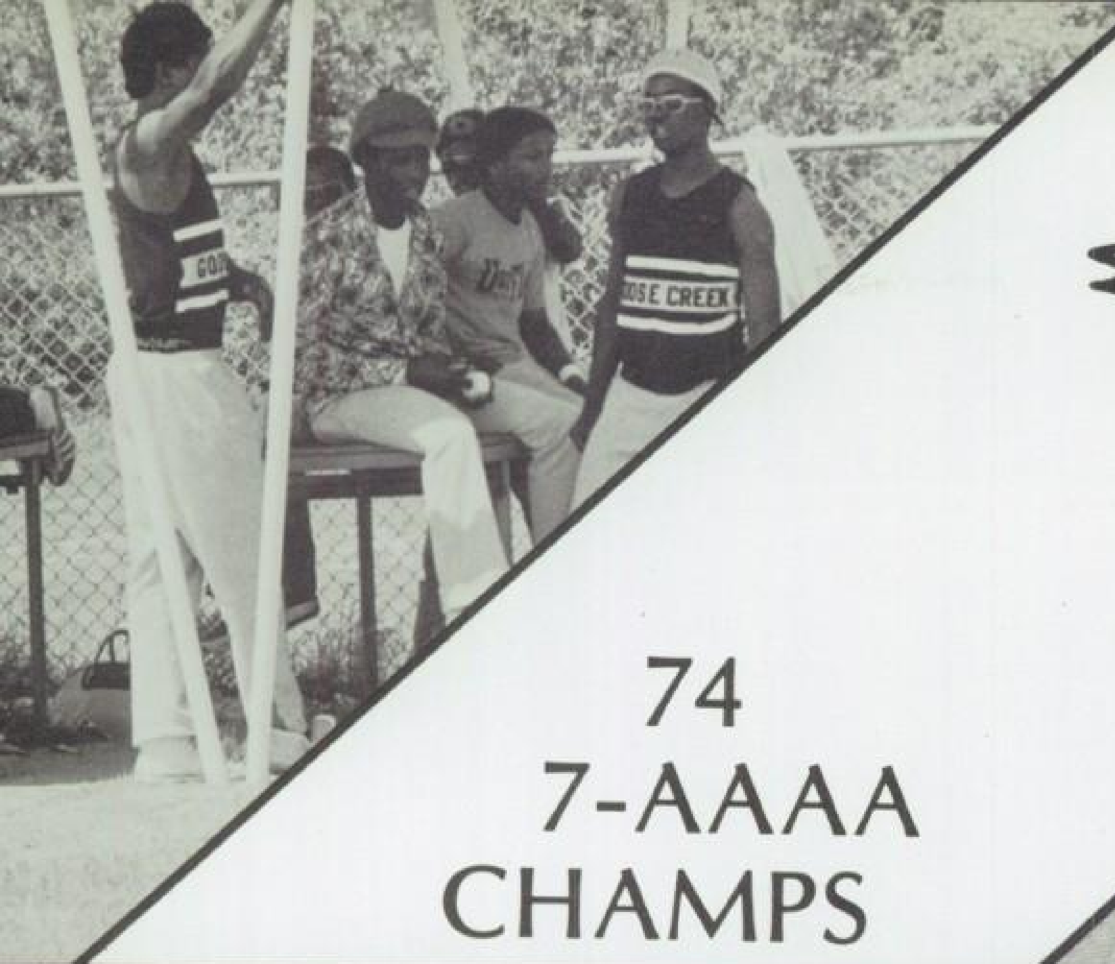
TENNIS

Things look good for our tennis team this year with seven returning players. The team will be coached by Jack Fisher. With such impressive records of previous seasons, this years team should be a state contender. The team of Mike Knight and Mike Worsham in the doubles competition came through with a great record and should be one of the teams strong points. Snyder, Fisher, and Johnson will be tough to beat when they are paired off with their opponents in the singles.





74 7-AAAA CHAMPS

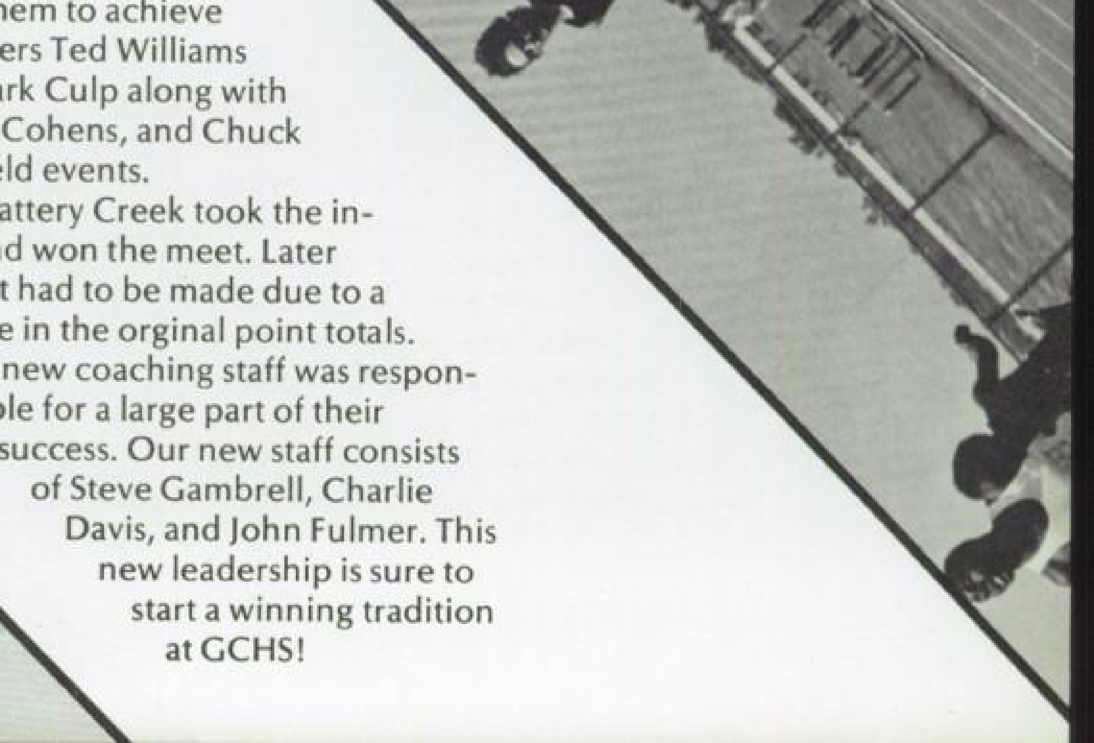
TRACK



Our Track Team hauled home the first Conference Championship ever, by knocking off Battery Creek in the 7-AAAA Region Meet. Helping them to achieve this goal were speedsters Ted Williams Gregg Batts, and Mark Culp along with Ken Kuehl, Frank Cohens, and Chuck Fauley in the field events.

Apparently Battery Creek took the initial lead and won the meet. Later a recount had to be made due to a mistake in the orginal point totals.

Our new coaching staff was responsible for a large part of their success. Our new staff consists of Steve Gambrell, Charlie Davis, and John Fulmer. This new leadership is sure to start a winning tradition at GCHS!

"Senior Class Officers"

Wow!!!! A freshman to a Senior? Where have the past four years gone? Just yesterday I was a freshman roaming the halls. I felt so big and proud.

I had a brand new locker and key. I still have that locker and key, although the key is not the same. I wonder why? Is it the locker and key or is it me?

People aren't the same anymore, no more book fees, lunches, cutting classes, pep rallies, football games, and Homecomings. They're gone so quickly, taken away so soon.

I felt like I couldn't wait to reach the other side of the rainbow. Now, I realize I am coming to the end, ironically it's only the beginning of a new life.

The game you have to win is life. There will be plenty of fouls and penalities and your goal is to always count your points. You're going to be on your own, finding new faces, new places, and another new day.

What have I done? Have I helped someone when they were down or wiped a tear to help them smile? These are all just yesterday's fantasies and tomorrow's realities.

Well, all I can say is farewell to my locker that holds my memories and the shiney key that opened the way for me.

In My Life

There are places I'll remember
All my life though some have changed.
Some forever not for better
Some have gone and some remain.
All these places had their moments
With lovers and friends I still recall.
Some are dead and some are living,
In my life I've loved them all.

But of all these friends and lovers,
There is no one compared with you,
And these memories lose their meaning
When I think of love as something new.
Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and things that went before,
I know I'll often stop and think about them
In my life I'll love you more.

Paul McCartney

Goin' Out to Help in a Carolina Way

Goin' out to help in a Carolina way —
Got on my boots and
There's a smile on my face.
Out in the sun in the heat of the day,
Yeah, I'm goin' to help in a Carolina way.

Surrounded by pine trees
Got my friends by my side
Gonna help the world,
Gonna quicken its stride.
Yeah, I'm goin' tut to help in a Carolina way.

Out in the fields,
Deep in the forest
Laughter fills my heart's domain
'Cause I'm surrounded by green,
Can't feel no pain.
Yeah, I'm goin' out to help in a Carolina way.

Ned shuffled along the worn floor and set the dented pot on the ancient sink. He stared across the narrow street through cracked, dingy windows that perhaps veiled the harshness of the empty buildings. It was hard to believe that not twenty years ago the neighborhood had been full of children and life. Now all that was left were old people like him, too settled or too stubborn to move. Ned filled the pot with cold water and emptied the bag of beans into it. Lifting the pot off the sink he carried it to the sagging fireplace and hung it on the cast iron hook over the glowing embers. Steam hissed from the embers as water sloshed over the lip of the pot. Ned eased his bent body down to the yearworn stool and clasped his withered hands in front of him. His bright eyes scanned the room then hesitated at a faded photograph of a young woman. She was dressed in what might have been a light blue dress. Her eyes still twinkled although the dust tried hard to dim them. Ned's wrinkled mouth turned up at the corners as he remembered the day he had taken that picture. She was so beautiful and she always seemed to be smiling. Her eyes shone in a manner that made you wonder what she was up to. She never changed even after all the years they had been together. He often wondered how a person could be so happy in the simple life he had given her. Sometimes he was glad she couldn't see their home now. Just last week another part of the plaster ceiling had crashed to the floor adding to the many scars already there. The walls were a mosaic pattern of cracks from floor to ceiling with rose paint curling on the pieces. The furniture had accomodated many bodies and showed its age as plainly as he did. Most of the time he missed her desperately, but all that was left were the memories and the battered box that held the things that were so dear to her. It held their wedding announcement, now cracked and yellowed with years. There was also a dried rosebud, the first he had ever given her. Ned wondered if the box was still in the closet. Slowly he got up, steadying himself on the mantle of the fireplace. Crossing the room, he grabbed a chair and drug it toward the closet. A small gasp escaped from his mouth as his hand clutched at the pain in his heart. He stopped a moment to catch his breath, then proceeded as the pain subsided. They seemed to come more often these days. He guessed it was his old age. Ned yanked at the old door of the closet, sending a cloud of dust into the air. He slid the chair into place and carefully climbed up. His eyes peered into the darkness while his hands searched for the familiar box. It was right where he remembered it being. He took the lid off the box and rummaged through the precious memories. Tucked in the corner was the dried flower almost crumbling at his touch. Gently he took the flower out and slid the box back in its place. He closed his eyes remembering that day. Suddenly, a searing pain shot through the left side of his chest. Gasping, he slid down in the chair, the flower in his clenched fist still uncrumbled. His thoughts flickered again to that day as a smile came to his pale face. His eyes fluttered closed and a peace enveloped the room.

Regina DelFavero

It was late evening when Jack Armstrong emerged from the wooded ridge and ambled into the snowfilled meadow beyond. A leaden grey sky hung threateningly overhead and the frigid winter wind whispered the promise of new snow before morning. Any other time he might be maddened at the thought of an approaching storm, but not tonight. It is only fitting to have snow on Christmas.

Just ahead lay his destination, a small, low log cabin sheltered in the lee of a mighty stand of spruce. A warm golden light filled the window and spilled out on the snow covered ground below.

He brought his horse to a stop and the pack-horse behind, laden only with a Christmas tree, did likewise. Jack sat quietly in the saddle and gazed on the peaceful scene below. Memories hidden deep in the recesses of his mind were rekindled as he regarded the cabin.

It was nine and a half years ago that he had first come here. He remembered clearly his escape from the prison back in Calgary where he had served two years of a life sentence for a murder he did not commit. In those nine years he had learned much of life in the wilderness and had come to love his freedom. Now he valued it more highly than life itself. He'd sooner die than give it up.

Smoke curled lazily from the chimney of his cabin as he drew near. He knew his partner, who he had met five years ago, would be inside. He wondered if he would like the present he'd bought for him with the money he'd received from his share of the beaver pelts. He thought he would. A rifle is an indispensable part of everyday life here and the one he'd bought as a Christmas present was a beauty. He tied his horses, took the new rifle and tree in hand and strode toward the door. He failed to notice the RCMP's horse tied behind the trees to his right. He unlatched the door and walked in. A minute later a shot rang out and Jack Armstrong lay dead on the floor.

AFRO AMERICAN

The Afro-American Club, in its second year at Goose Creek, is designed to be a social and welfare organization. Our basic aim is to give students an insight into the history that is behind the Black Man in America. Beside historical studies, the Club helps needy organizations. The Afro-American Club is open to all students enrolled in Goose Creek High, regardless of academic standing or grade level. This year's Club officers were: Cynthia Taylor, president; Barbara Rivers, Secretary; and Andrea Glover, Treasurer. Mrs. Glover sponsors the Club.

The Chess Club was organized to stimulate interest in chess and to provide an opportunity for students to play regularly. Though the Club never got off the ground, the GCHS Chess Team (Conde Woodworth, Gregory, Lambright, Perkins, Cragg, et al) took 2nd in the Tri-County Chess League.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club exists so that students may further their scientific interests and knowledge through group projects and experiments. Currently, the Club is constructing a one mega-mega-ton peanut butter and jelly bomb with which, a club spokesman says, the Club will be able to rule the world.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library and A-V Club is composed of students who assist the librarians in performing the many duties associated with the functioning of our school library. The members also aid teachers in the use of audio-visual equipment. This year the Library Club held a raffle and the annual Book Fair to raise money for Audio-visual equipment.

PEP SQUAD

The PEP Squad is an organization for the promotion of school spirit. Its membership consists of thirty girls deeply committed to their school. The members undergo a screening process and are chosen for their personality, conduct, attitude, and especially for their spirit. The PEP Squad cheers at all football games, bonfires, home basketball games and most home wrestling matches. It takes more than just yelling to have school spirit. What others would consider as sacrificing time, effort and money, PEP Squad members consider a duty. To finance the club, the girls have sold candles, held rummage sales, car washes, raffles, sponsored a dance and even sold confetti at Away and Home football games. PEP Squad is a popular and worthwhile organization, representing the best in pride for one's school. Mrs. P.E.P. McAlister sponsors the Squad.

The Band is an integral part of GCHS, but, unfortunately, it is not appreciated as much as it should be. The Gator Bands provide the music at all our athletic activities and at assemblies, and they enhance our school spirit. The Band represents GCHS throughout the state. Along with running the concession stand at athletic events, the Band and the Band Boosters are currently engaged in several fund raising activities in order to soon purchase new uniforms.

CHEERLEADERS

VARSITY

It is more difficult being a cheerleader than most people imagine. A cheerleader must be all spirit, all smiles, and all pep, especially when the going gets rough. G C H S has what are considered the highest cheerleading standards in the area. Would be cheerleaders must survive two cuts to even be eligible for the final cheering competition. The girls who do make the squad have a right to feel lucky and proud. Our cheerleaders put in long hours of practice all year in order to perform their best. This past summer, our Varsity Squad brought home first place in both Cheers and Pompom routines, as well as the Most Outstanding Squad Award at Camp Pla-Mor. G C H S appreciates its cheerleaders for that certain amount of dignity, honor and pride they instill in our school.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders work as hard as the Varsity Cheerleaders in order to instill school spirit. They cheer our JV teams on to victory as well as keep their spirits high when defeat is at hand. They boost the moral of both our athletes and spectators. At Camp Pla-Mor this summer, the JV took second in Cheers.

THE FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of students and former students of Home Economics. The club participates in civic and social service projects involving the school and the community. As a fund raising project, the Miss FHA contest was held. The girl collecting the most money was chosen Miss FHA and rode her float in the Homecoming Parade, dressed in red and white, the traditional club colors. Representatives are chosen by the membership to represent the club at the annual convention in Columbia. The G.C.H.S. FHA is sponsored by Mrs. Belton and Mrs. McGuire.

GERMAN CLUB

J. Bowers, J. Burdette, J. Jones, B. Pettigrew, G. Mulkey, G. Cope, C. Bowser, C. Dreher, B. Knox, K. Stauffer, Sponsor

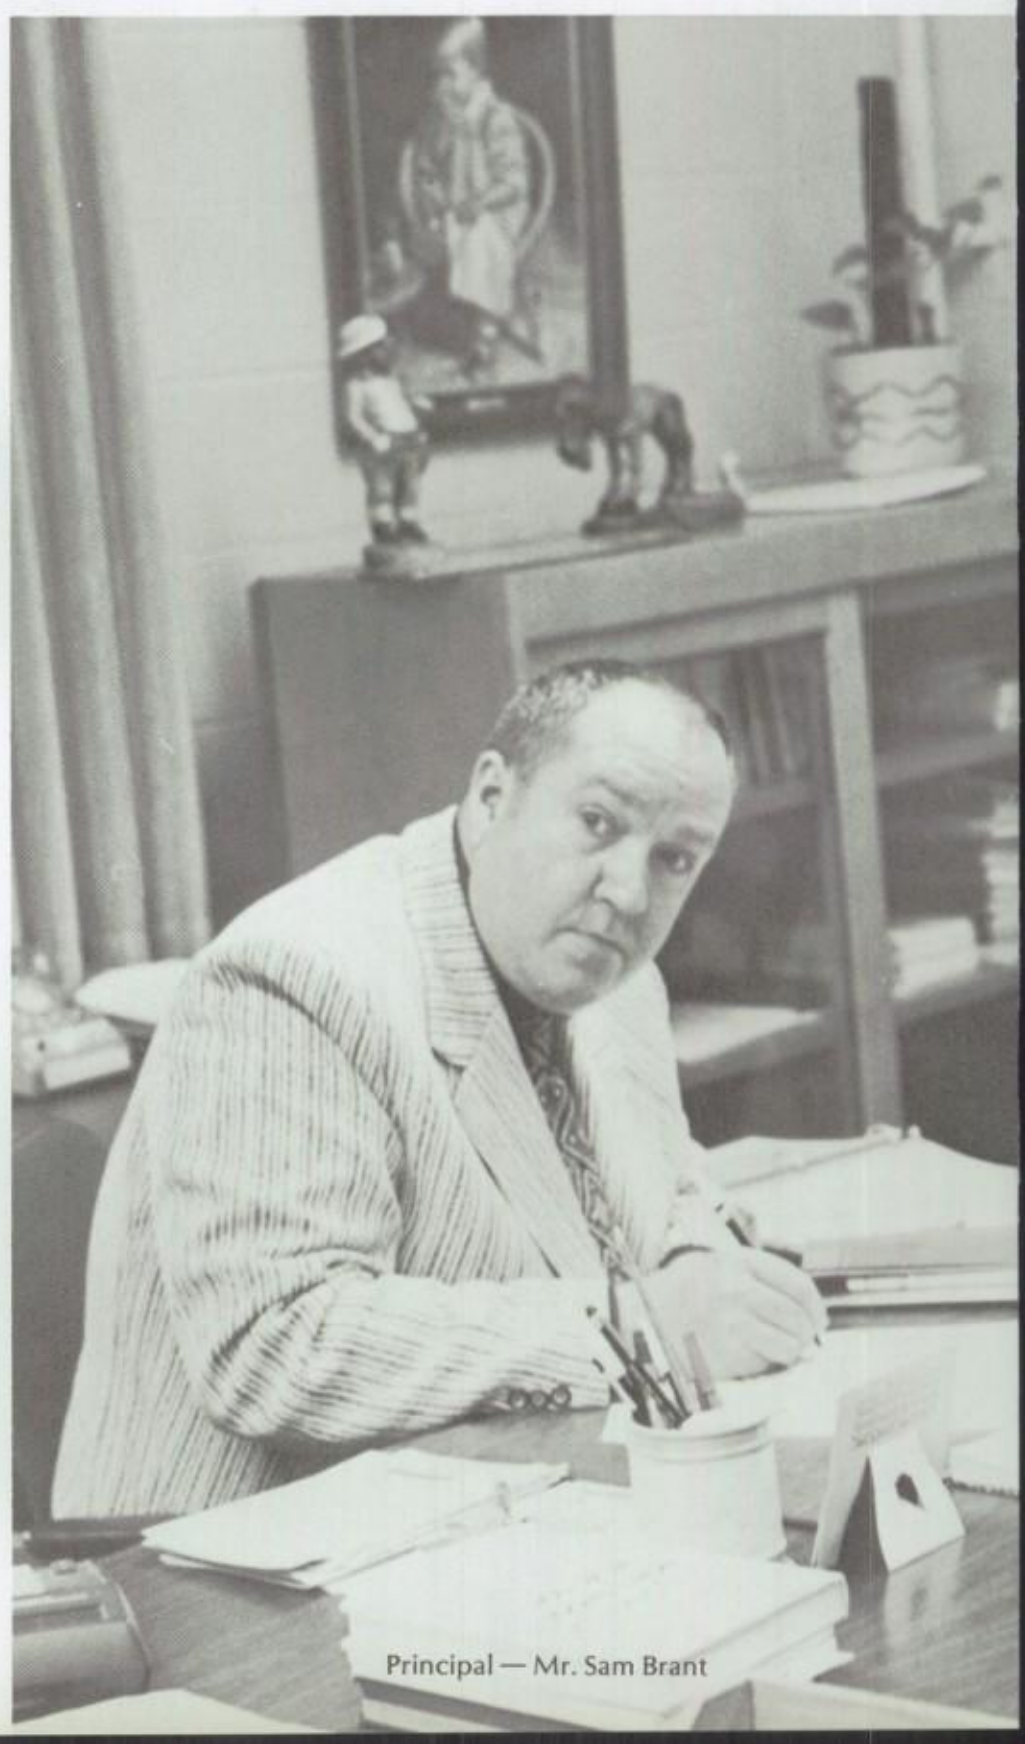
The German Club was formed by those first year German students who wished to gain a better understanding of German culture and customs. Some of the local activities attended by the Club members were the Oktoberfest at Charles Towne Landing, the Weihnachtsfest during Christmas, and the concert of the Vienese Boys' Choir.

FACULTY

MR. BRANT SEES ALL

Principals sometimes feel: Principal must be about the lousiest job anyone could dream up. Students don't like you because they didn't do anything when you have to enforce policies the bigwheels cooked up, evidently while they were out of touch with reality. Teachers don't like you because you don't enforce the policies the bigwheels cooked up, although they agree with you that the wheels weren't on the ground when they were cooking. Parents don't like you because Johnny couldn't do anything wrong, even if he is on a first name basis with every cop in the county. And the bigwheels don't like you because they wouldn't let the stupid things that go in your school go on if THEY were principal. Face it. You can't do anything right. At times like this YOU could burn down the school. BUT, when a student comes up and says "Ms. P's alright. I thought poetry was a drag but it's not. She makes it interesting;" or when a parent drops in to say the school is doing a good job; or a teacher starts bragging about how enthusiastic the students are in class, it just reconfirms the fact that I know Goose Creek is the BEST high school in the entire area!

Brant



Principal — Mr. Sam Brant

Owens, Brant, Baylor

OFFICE STAFF

Who runs the school? The principal makes decisions. Assistant principals knock heads. Teachers teach and guidance counselors guide. Cafeteria staffs cook and janitors do the dirty work. But who does the boring work of typing reports and requisitions, locating people, answering the phone (and running the risk of getting cussed out by someone unheard of about something unknown). Who keeps tabs on all the little things that happen every day all day and who shuffles the paper that must be shuffled? Whose requisition prevents the school from running out of mimeograph paper, paper clips, chalk, or toilet paper? Those people in the office. If it were not for Mrs. Bradham, Gibson, Gussler and Rudd, this school would not function.

1. Mrs. Bradham
2. Mrs. Gibson
3. Mrs. Rudd
4. Mr. Baylor — assistant Principal
5. Mr. Owens — assistant Principal

Why have Assistant Principals anyway? One student answered: "Because everybody would hate one guy. This way they spread it around, there's three guys to hate. I've seen Mr. Owens three times but I haven't seen Brant or Baylor. They're alright but I hate Owens." Contrary to popular belief, assistant principals don't run around with bullwhips and chairs. It's a tough job with few rewards, so why be an assistant principal? "My reward lies in the hope that perhaps I can be of some help to those I come into contact with in my daily work," R.H. Owens. "My most rewarding moments have been the few occasions when students have convinced me, through words and actions, that I have been influential in their having successful high school careers. The importance of an individual is determined by the value of the service he renders to others," W.L. Baylor.

Near the seacoast of Carolina

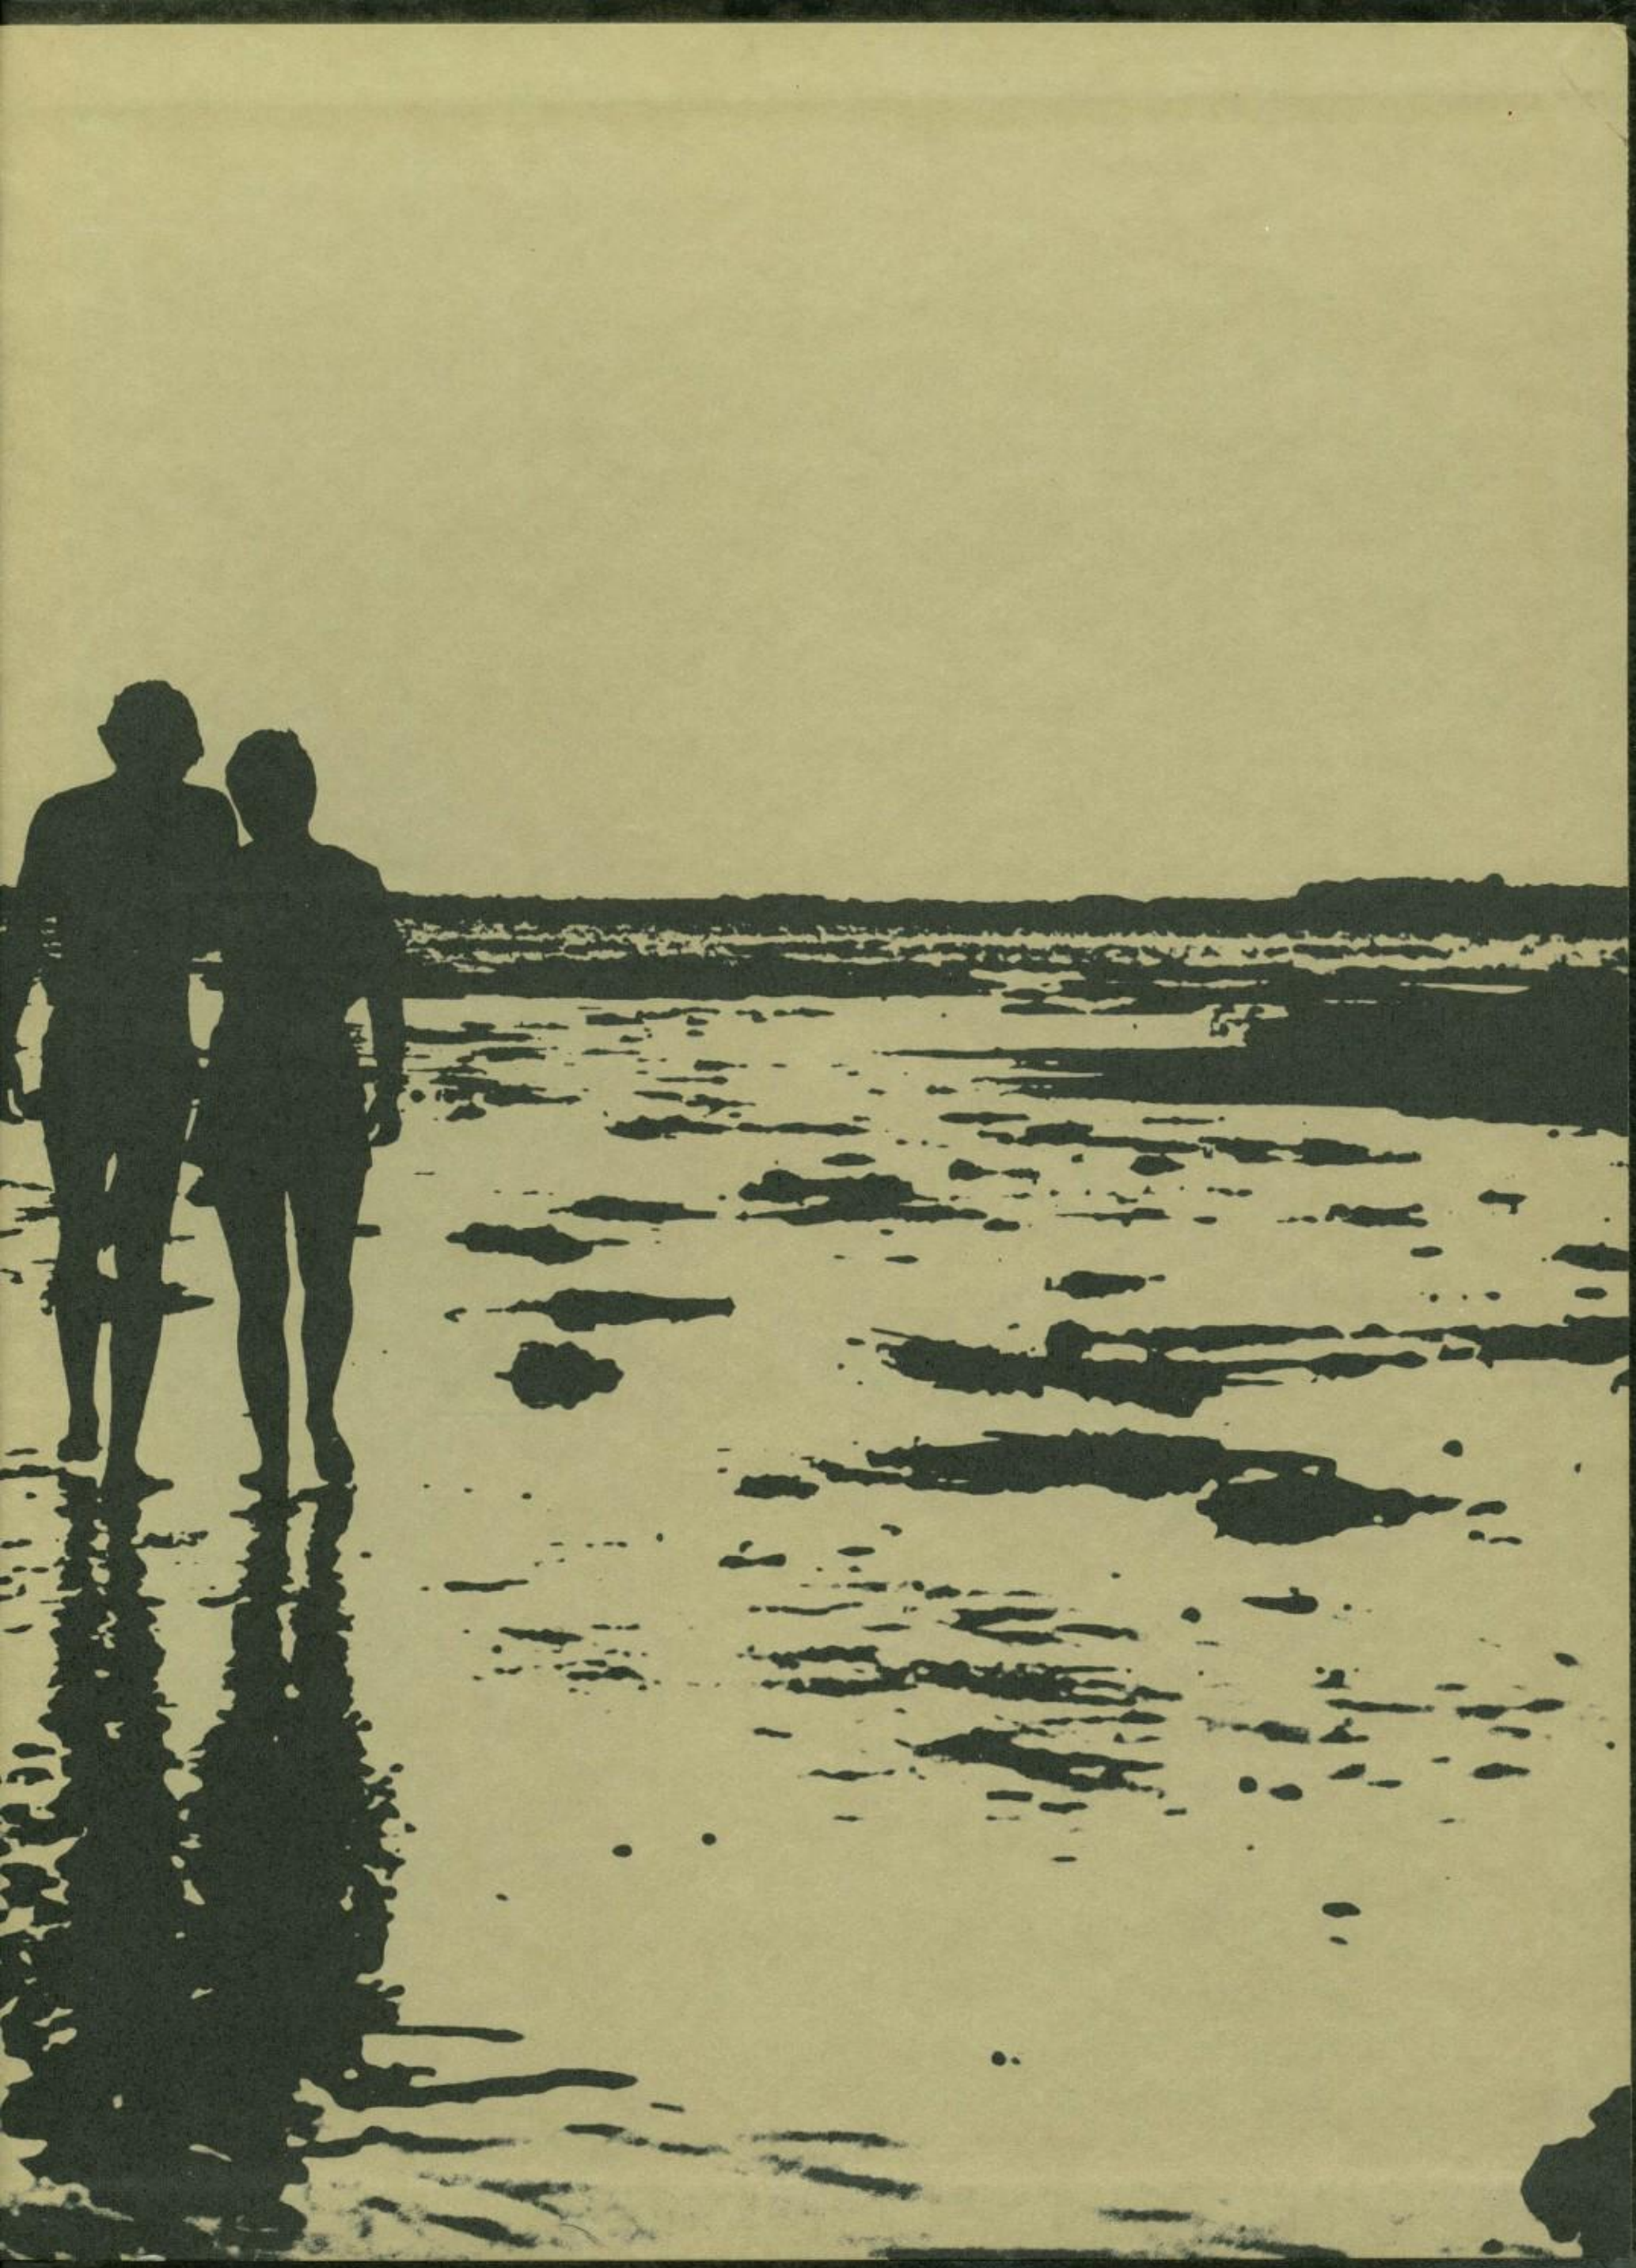
Colors Black and Gold

Stands our noble aima mater

Glorious to behold

Raise the chorus, speed it onward

Praise it to the sky

Hail to thee our alma mater


Dear old Goose Creek High
